INTERESTS AND HOBBIES

Julie has many interests ranging from patchwork quilting/sewing to learning to be a kayaking instructor to disabled people. She and her husband recently qualified to become foster carers offering respite to full time foster carers. She loves to read, watch movies and has an active social life. In her teenage years Julie competed nationally in many forms of sport and was the UK 400 and 800 metre wheelchair champion as well as table tennis and swimming. She has recently been on a course to offer benefits awareness support and has worked actively in promoting the equal rights of disabled people. She is also an active gamer and enjoys cooking for her friends and family. As you can see Julie is an all round girl who is able to do many things and has an interest that covers many areas.
